Crafting with Dollar Bill

Duct Tape Wallet

Step 1

Cut 4 pieces of duct tape about 10" long. Lay on table sticky side up. Connect them by overlapping the top edge of one to the bottom edge of the next. Repeat so you will end up with 2 tape squares.

Step 3

To create smooth edges, cut a strip a little longer than the tape square. Tear it in half length wise. Fold over the top & bottom edges.

Step 5

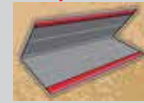

Tape side edges together the same as you did the top & bottom. Now you have a pocket.

Step 2

Carefully stick the 2 squares together.

Step 4

Fold square in half so it resembles an open wallet.

Step 6

Fold in half sideways to create your wallet.

Cooking with Dollar Bill

Dirt & Worms

What you need:

- 1 pkg chocolate instant pudding
- 2 cups cold milk
- 1 tub (8oz) Cool Whip topping, thawed
- 15 Oreo cookies, finely crushed
- 10 gummy worms

Make it:

Whisk pudding mix & milk in large bowl for 2 min. Let stand 5 min. Stir in Cool Whip and 1/2 cup of the cookie crumbs. Spoon mixture into 10 small cups. Top with remaining cookie crumbs. Refrigerate 1 hour. Add 2 gummy worms to each cup before serving.

Why is it so Important to Become a Good Saver ?

If you have any bad habits, like chewing with your mouth open, biting your nails, or playing with your food, you know how hard it can be to break those bad habits! The good news is that good habits are just as hard to break! So when you teach yourself good savings habits while you're young, it will become second nature to you and will be easy for you to continue saving as you get older. In fact, if you become really good at saving right now, you will most likely be a good saver for the rest of your life. And that will make it a piece of cake to save for grown-up things as you get older, like a car, college, and even a home. Saving your money for things like toys and apps for your tablet right now is a great way to start teaching yourself to save for the really big things when you grow up! So what are you waiting for?
